

December 2012

Afternoon Class

We have begun our project on sharks and pirates; please check the classroom blog for updates on this learning project. On your child's Special Helper day (where their name appears on the calendar) please have them bring a Show and Share item that relates to sharks or pirates (example: storybook, information book, or toys). There will not be an accompanying information sheet this month – so please discuss with your child what they would like to tell the class about their Show and Share item. There are not enough days for everyone to have a Special Helper day this month, if your child does not get a turn this month they will have their turn in January (with the same Show and Share theme).

Drama Presentation: Reading and Acting

An undergraduate class from the drama department will be coming to visit us on Monday, December 3rd. They will be acting out stories as their professor reads them aloud. This is a perfect introduction to our storyacting curriculum, which will begin the following day! They are only able to come at 1:30, so students from our morning class may be joining us for this performance.
